

Third rate warship with two gundecks, 84 cannon and a polychrome figurehead, made by Danish and Norwegian prisoners in Greenlaw near Edinburgh. Size: 68 x 12 x 56 cm. In 1811 the model was presented to the then Danish priest in London, Ulrich Fredrik Rosing by grateful Danish and Norwegian prisoners for his help in exchanges and correspondence between Denmark and the British authorities.

Royal Danish Naval Museum, Copenhagen

Photo: Jakob Seerup

