

A Private collector in Hamburg

A POW bone ship model of a Frigate with 30 cannon. The model is mounted on gilded stands in fish form. A multicolored female figurehead with a crown on her head decorates the bow of the ship. The view of the Galion and the foredeck shows the bowsprit and the knightheads. There is a gun retraction mechanism on the starboard side. The model originates from the early 19th century.

Galion and martingale (right)

Pair of knightheads (left) and figurehead

Gun retraction mechanism on starboard side